

YOUR PACKING GUIDE

The Caribbean

Turquoise water, rum punch at sunset and long, lazy lunches. Here is everything you need for island time.

GOOD TO KNOW

Leave camouflage at home

Wearing camouflage clothing is illegal for civilians in several Caribbean countries, including Barbados, Jamaica and St Lucia.

Mind the season

Hurricane season runs from June to November. A light rain jacket is always useful for passing showers.

Mosquitoes at dusk

Insect repellent is worth keeping in your beach bag for sunset.

Dinner can be smart

Some restaurants ask for collared shirts and no beachwear in the evening, so pack a few smarter pieces.

US dollars are welcome

US dollars are widely accepted, and small notes are handy for tips.
